The Reluctant Dragon (a musical that will delight the child in everyone).

When: Jan. 16 & 17 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm.
Where: 316 Beltrami Ave NW

NEW LOCATION: The BCT Performing Arts Space, 316 Beltrami Ave. NW

Men, women, and children over the age of 7 are invited to audition.

Prepare a 1 minute monologue, 16 measures of a song, and be prepared to do some improvisational exercises.

Summary: Set in the medieval fairytale village of Tea ‘N’ Crumpet, The Reluctant Dragon tells the tale of Joey Bishop, whose love of dragons and inquisitive nature force him to venture off in search of a dragon that has reportedly been terrorizing the countryside. What he finds instead is a sweet old dragon (named Dennis D. Dragon) and three baby all-singing, all-dancing dragonettes, whom he quickly befriends. Things seem idyllic until the Mayoress of the village hires a dragon-slaying knight to hunt down Dennis — then it’s up to Joey to secure a “happy ending.”

Directed by Mary Knox-Johnson, Vocal Direction by Julie and Paul Loxtercamp, Accompaniment by Carla Norris-Raynubird, Stage Management by Hannah Fletcher.

Go online to Heuer Publishing at: https://www.hitblows.com to listen to the songs

Room Service.

Directed by Derrick Houle
Feb. 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10

Summary: A nimble-witted producer, living on credit in a Broadway hotel, is desperately in need of a good script. He finds one and also finds an angel with $15,000; however, during a hectic few days, the producer plays hide-and-seek with the angel who wants to withdraw his financial support, manages to outwit creditors, and ... Oh, but we don’t want to spoil the surprise. Tickets will be available at Iverson Corner Drug and Ken K. Thompson Jewelry.

The Death of Dr. Valentine.

Directed by Kristine Cannon
Valentine’s Day Feb. 14

Tickets, $40 per person, may be purchased at the Sanford Event Center Box Office. The ticket price includes a 3 course meal as well as the show.

Summary: Dr. Paul Valentine is scheduled to speak at a dinner; as he rushes around trying to find his wife, he leaves messages for her with the other guests. Soon three different women appear all claiming to be his wife. His nephew reports him missing and just as the police Lieutenant begins the search, Dr. Valentine is shot dead—but by whom? As the Lieutenant interrogates suspects, the audience hunts for clues to help solve the mystery. This interactive murder mystery dinner theater is collaboratively sponsored by Bemidji Community Theater and the Sanford Event Center with a portion of the proceeds going to BCT for future programming. The event will be held at The Sanford Event Center.

Bemidji Community Theater’s new space will now be officially referred to as the Bemidji Community Theater Performing Arts Center or HQ (short for Headquarters).